

Eduardo Rei

Date of birth: 13/06/1988

Nationality: Portuguese

Gender: Male

CONTACT

 Braga, Portugal (Home)

 eduardograngiarei@gmail.com

 (+351) 932897042

WORK EXPERIENCE

01/09/2023 – CURRENT Porto, Portugal

Critical Care Nurse Cuf

- Responsible for the assessment of patient care needs and the development, implementation and evaluation of plans of care, ensuring high standards of evidence based care
- Competently manage critical care therapies i.e. Endotracheal tubes, artificial ventilation, invasive monitoring (e.g. haemodynamic), inotropic therapy, paralyzing agents and sedation, continuous renal replacement therapies, and others
- Analyzes and interpret complex data derived from patient monitoring and plan appropriate care within agreed protocols
- Undertakes all nursing procedures in accordance with Hospital policies and ensure that these procedures and policies are understood and adhered to by all staff, within their own management responsibility
- Communicates with patients and significant others with empathy and reassurance regarding, assessment, care and treatment
- Maintains accurate and comprehensive nursing records using appropriate documentation
- Liaises with the multidisciplinary team and the emergency team to ensure appropriate arrangements are in place for patients being discharged to wards/referring hospitals
- Ensures safe custody and administration of drugs according to the hospital's policy and procedures, including intravenous medication and epidural analgesia
- Works as part of a multi-disciplinary team to promote good communication and a multi-disciplinary approach to patient care
- Participates in projects, audits, benchmarking processes, and implement action plans as required
- Implements safe working practices at all times

11/10/2021 – 03/08/2022 London, United Kingdom

Charge Nurse Critical Care and Outreach - Band 7 Clevel and Clinic London

- Provides direct patient care in ICU
- Supervises the delivery of patient care
- Maintains adherence to CCL patient care standards of practice through ongoing coordination and supervision of assigned staff
- Facilitates communication and collaboration within the ICU and between other units regarding patient care
- Participates in the identification, development and establishment of the patient care program in ICU
- Serves as a clinical resource for nursing and medical caregivers
- Coordinates patient admitting, discharges, transfers and other operational tasks
- Monitors and resolves patients' service issues and provides feedback regarding satisfaction results to Nursing Executive Leadership
- Facilitates the incorporation of patient safety and Magnet principles into clinical nursing care
- Supports the overall planning and execution of induction programs for ICU nurses for inpatient hospital site, including ICU and interdepartmental mock operations
- Develops policies, procedures, standards, committees and strategic plans for the critical care department at CCL
- Provides leadership in development, implementation and ongoing monitoring of education programs in ICU

- Supports educational opportunities including continuing professional development events, and in-service programs in order to educate caregivers
- Counsels staff on performance issues, administers initial corrective actions and monitors attendance issues
- Participates in interviewing, selecting and appraising the performance of caregivers
- Monitors unit's key performance indicators
- Helps support quality improvement, accreditation and patient safety projects and research initiatives
- Ensures that the ICU operates in conjunction with local and international regulatory and accreditation standards
- Responsible for development of the nursing schedules
- Responsible for coordinating nursing education schedules
- Provides ongoing clinical evaluations of nurses and other direct and indirect patient care providers in ICU

03/01/2016 – 15/07/2021 Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates

● Charge Nurse Critical Care Cleveland Clinic Abu Dhabi

- Provides direct patient care in ICU
- Supervises the delivery of patient care
- Maintains adherence to CCL patient care standards of practice through ongoing coordination and supervision of assigned staff
- Facilitates communication and collaboration within the ICU and between other units regarding patient care
- Participates in the identification, development and establishment of the patient care program in ICU
- Serves as a clinical resource for nursing and medical caregivers
- Coordinates patient admitting, discharges, transfers and other operational tasks
- Monitors and resolves patients' service issues and provides feedback regarding satisfaction results to Nursing Executive Leadership
- Facilitates the incorporation of patient safety and Magnet principles into clinical nursing care
- Supports the overall planning and execution of induction programs for ICU nurses for inpatient hospital site, including ICU and interdepartmental mock operations
- Develops policies, procedures, standards, committees and strategic plans for the critical care department at CCL
- Provides leadership in development, implementation and ongoing monitoring of education programs in ICU
- Supports educational opportunities including continuing professional development events, and in-service programs in order to educate caregivers
- Counsels staff on performance issues, administers initial corrective actions and monitors attendance issues
- Participates in interviewing, selecting and appraising the performance of caregivers
- Monitors unit's key performance indicators
- Helps support quality improvement, accreditation and patient safety projects and research initiatives
- Ensures that the ICU operates in conjunction with local and international regulatory and accreditation standards
- Responsible for development of the nursing schedules
- Responsible for coordinating nursing education schedules
- Provides ongoing clinical evaluations of nurses and other direct and indirect patient care providers in ICU

15/06/2015 – 29/11/2015 London, United Kingdom

● Critical Care Nurse - Band 5 University College London Hospitals

- Responsible for the assessment of patient care needs and the development, implementation and evaluation of plans of care, ensuring high standards of evidence based care
- Competently manage critical care therapies i.e. Endotracheal tubes, artificial ventilation, invasive monitoring (e.g. haemodynamic), inotropic therapy, paralyzing agents and sedation, continuous renal replacement therapies, and others
- Analyzes and interpret complex data derived from patient monitoring and plan appropriate care within agreed protocols
- Undertakes all nursing procedures in accordance with Hospital policies and ensure that these procedures and policies are understood and adhered to by all staff, within their own management responsibility
- Communicates with patients and significant others with empathy and reassurance regarding, assessment, care and treatment
- Maintains accurate and comprehensive nursing records using appropriate documentation

- Liaises with the multidisciplinary team and the emergency team to ensure appropriate arrangements are in place for patients being discharged to wards/referring hospitals
- Ensures safe custody and administration of drugs according to the hospital's policy and procedures, including intravenous medication and epidural analgesia
- Works as part of a multi-disciplinary team to promote good communication and a multi-disciplinary approach to patient care
- Participates in projects, audits, benchmarking processes, and implement action plans as required
- Implements safe working practices at all times

07/05/2013 – 05/06/2015 Reading, United Kingdom

● Senior Staff Nurse - Band 6 Royal Berkshire Hospital

- Providing high quality standards in patient care on peritoneal dialysis
- Provision of high quality standards in care for hemodialysis patients
- Provision of hemodialysis treatment using the Fresenius 5008 and Gambro AK 200 machine
- Provision of hemodialysis treatment for acute and chronic patients and plasmapheresis
- Access and maintenance of fistulas and central catheters
- Care of the patient with changes in blood pressure and electrolyte disturbances
- Care for the transplant patient
- Responsible for the assessment of patient care needs and the development, implementation and evaluation of plans of care, ensuring high standards of evidence based care
- Analyzes and interpret complex data derived from patient monitoring and plan appropriate care within agreed protocols
- Undertakes all nursing procedures in accordance with Hospital policies and ensure that these procedures and policies are understood and adhered to by all staff, within their own management responsibility
- Communicates with patients and significant others with empathy and reassurance regarding, assessment, care and treatment
- Maintains accurate and comprehensive nursing records using appropriate documentation
- Liaises with the multidisciplinary team and the emergency team to ensure appropriate arrangements are in place for patients being discharged to wards/referring hospitals
- Ensures safe custody and administration of drugs according to the hospital's policy and procedures, including intravenous medication and epidural analgesia
- Works as part of a multi-disciplinary team to promote good communication and a multi-disciplinary approach to patient care
- Participates in projects, audits, benchmarking processes, and implement action plans as required
- Implements safe working practices at all times

01/03/2012 – 11/04/2013 Lucan, Ireland

● Staff Nurse Marymount Care Centre

- Have a person centred approach to individualised residents care planning and to the implementation and evaluation of care provided
- Demonstrate clinical knowledge in the management of residents illnesses
- Establish and develop effective communication between the residents, their relatives and all members of the care team
- Safe custody and administration of drugs in accordance with Department of Health and Bórd Áltranais Guidelines
- Maintain a safe working environment and ensure effective and economical use of all resources
- Report to Clinical nurse Manager/director of Nursing when changes occur in circumstances, which affect safe, competent practice
- Maintain accurate and up to date nursing documentation for all for required clinical and legal records
- Enhance & promote a home environment which reflects a commitment to respect and care for all who live and work in Marymount Care centre
- Ensure competence in all professional practice through continuing education which is relevant to the role.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

11/2018 – 28/04/2020 Cardiff, United Kingdom

● Msc Critical Care Cardiff University

Website <https://www.cardiff.ac.uk/>

04/04/2015 London, United Kingdom

FHEQ 4: Mentorship for Healthcare Professionals University of West London

Website <https://www.uwl.ac.uk/>

23/07/2014 London, United Kingdom

FHEQ 4: Surveillance, Prevention & Management of Infection - L6 University of West London

Website <https://www.uwl.ac.uk/>

09/09/2007 – 15/07/2011 Aveiro, Portugal

Nursing Degree Escola Superior de Saúde da Universidade de Aveiro

Website <https://www.ua.pt/pt/essua>

LANGUAGE SKILLS

MOTHER TONGUE(S): Portuguese

Other language(s):

English

Listening C2

Reading C2

Writing C2

Spoken production C2

Spoken interaction C2

Levels: A1 and A2: Basic user; B1 and B2: Independent user; C1 and C2: Proficient user

DIGITAL SKILLS

Epic | Glint | Patient Care | B-simple | Alert | SPMS | SONHO