- Working as a vaccine nurse in the Uusimaa region was a rewarding experience centered around serving the community's healthcare needs. I found myself administering vaccines, educating individuals about immunization, and ensuring that the vaccination process is efficient and comfortable. My role directly contributed to the health and well-being of my community by helping to prevent the spread of Coronavirus and fostering a safer environment for everyone during the pandemic. In a rehabilitation orthopedic setting, as a student registered nurse, my main activities and responsibilities typically include:

1. Assisting with rehabilitation exercises and therapies prescribed by healthcare professionals, such as physical therapists, to help patients regain mobility and strength.
2. Learning and applying specialized orthopedic nursing skills, such as wound care, cast care, and assisting with mobility aids.
3. Observing and documenting patient progress in rehabilitation activities and their response to treatment.
4. Participating in patient education sessions focused on orthopedic conditions, rehabilitation techniques, and post-operative care.
5. Collaborating closely with the multidisciplinary team, including orthopedic surgeons, physiotherapists, and occupational therapists, to develop and implement individualized care plans.
6. Adhering to ethical principles and professional standards in providing care to orthopedic patients, including respecting patient autonomy and confidentiality.
7. Engaging in continuous learning and skill development to stay updated on advances in orthopedic nursing and rehabilitation techniques.
8. Following established protocols and safety measures to prevent falls, pressure injuries, and other complications commonly associated with orthopedic conditions.
9. Demonstrating sensitivity, empathy, and patience when interacting with patients recovering from orthopedic surgeries or injuries.
10. Seeking guidance and mentorship from experienced orthopedic nurses and rehabilitation specialists to enhance your clinical competence and confidence in caring for orthopedic patients.
